A RIDING PARTY.

A party of twelve went over the Pali to Koolau yesterday. They were twice drenched by rain before reaching the Pali, and were cooled off again by a brisk shower at Heeia. On their return trip, last night, one of them fell into a ditch on the side of the road, near the old ice works, and came near being killed. It was dark as pitch and raining heavily when the cavalcade of 12 came down the road, and all went well until one of the horses disappeared with his rider, as though the earth had opened to receive them. The Water Works people had made an excavation to lay pipes, but left no light there or any other danger signal. The ditch is a nasty place to fall into on a dark night, as it might cause permanent injuries or death. As it happened last night, the horse and rider rolled over twice, without either being seriously hurt.

A BULLOCK'S ESCAPE.

On Saturday last, the James Makee put into Nawiliwili harbor for the purpose of embarking some cattle for the Honolulu market. An animal, not appreciating the situation, (in the slings) slipped out when over the deck, marched aft and jumped overboard. The boatmen were despatched after him and in less than five minutes, the bullock was safely on board again. He was secured on deck and landed at the cattle pen yesterday morning.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

Mr. Williams, a Swede of middle age, was accidentally shot and killed at Paauhau last Thursday. He went into a harness room on the above day, to get a shotgun, with the intention of firing at some quail. He reached over a railing and was drawing the gun, muzzle first, towards him, when it went off. The shot entered his left side, and penetrated to the heart. about ten feet after the discharge of the gun, and then dropped dead. Williams was a teamster on the plantation, and was spoken of as a good man. He was buried on the next day, leaving a brother on the same plantation and many friends to mourn his loss.

THE MARAROA, ARRIVAL AND DE-

PARTURE. The Oceanic Steamship Company's Mararoa came to the wharf, from Australia and New Zealand about 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and left for San Francisco at about 8 o'clock the same evening. The through passengers came ashore, and made good use of the short stay in port to see what was to be seen in Honolulu. An immense crowd of people gathered on the wharf to bid adieu to departing friends and to see the steamer off. The King and suite went aboard and remained to the last. The indefatigable Berger was in attendance with his band of musicians, and filled the air with animating sounds. As the noble ship steamed out of the harbor in the darkness, with her electric lights full ablaze and emitting illumination through every window and porthole, she presented a grand sight.

The Mararoa brought 6 adult passengers for Honolulu, and a little freight, and had 94 passengers for San Francisco. She took from here 12 cabin and 21 steerage passengers, a little freight, and the mails.

CONCERT AT KILAUEA, KAUAI, IN AID OF KILAUEA CHURCH.

On Saturday the 14th inst., a concert was given at Kilauea Church, in aid of the Church funds. The talent engaged was purely local, and proved very successful. Miss Bernice Barnard rendered valuable assistance as accompanyist, and to her is due the enthusiastic reception of the vocalists. The choir from Anahola Church, under the direction of the Rev. Kaiapa, sang two or three Hawaiian gless, concluding with "Aloha Oe" and "Hawaii Ponoi," which sent every member of the audience home feeling happy. The Misses Mahoe acquitted themselves creditably as vocalists, and it is hoped that their voices will be agaid heard ere long. Mr. J. B. Alexander, the pastor of the Church, returned from Waimea in the middle of his vacation in order to take part in the concert. He sang "The Lost Chord" with telling effect, and in trio with the Garstin Bros., his high clear notes were heard with delight. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Macfie, Jr.,

took an active part in the performance and added to its success. Mrs. Macfie's "Cup of tea" was a relish to all, and brought fourth rounds of applause, while Mr. Macfie's success la v in a serio-comic solo on cane cultivation. The Bertelmann family were ably represented by the two boys from St. Louis College, and Miss Katie Bertelmann, who played instrumental pieces to the delight of their parents and the entire audience. Financially, the concert was a success, there being over 200 people who contributed towards the desired fund. The next step will be to apply the money to a practical purpose which we hope to see realized in a few desired improvements. The members who took part in the scheme have every reason to feel proud of the results, and when again in similar need, will not hesitate to have recourse to similar means.

PRESENTATION TO MR. ROBERT CRIEVE.

At the close of the day's and week's work at the Hawaiian Gazette offie, on Saturday afternoon last, the employees and proprietors met in an informal way, by preconcerted arrangement, in the printing office. Mr. Robert Grieve, who has recently retired from the proprietary and the management, had been asked, without any specified reason, to be there at that time.

Mr. A. T. Atkinson, editor of the Gazette, stepped forward from the company of assembled employees, with an unpretentious-looking paper parcel in his hands, at the same time intimating a desire for Mr. Grieve's attention, who was at the time conversing with a friend.

Attention secured, Mr. Atkinson said that he had been deputed by the employees of the office to make a presentation of the parcel he held in his hands to Mr. Grieve, as a token of their respect and esteem, at the same time expressing his own and the employees' admiration for the many good qualities of the gentleman whom he was addressing, which years of close connection had begotten.

Mr. Grieve was taken by surprise, the affair being quite unexpected to him. He thanked his former employees for their kind sentiments, stating that he had endeavored to deal fairly and justly with them, and was gratified with their gift, as an expression of their satisfaction with his treatment, and an evidence of their continued good feeling towards himself. It would be kept as a remembrance of past agreeable relations and many wrestlings together in the struggle of life.

The removal of the paper covering from the parcel revealed a large and beautiful silver ice pitcher, bearing the following incription:-"Presented to Robert Grieve by the employees of the Hawaiian Gazette Publishing Company, Honolulu, August 28, 1886.

The Republique Française insists on France retaining the New Heb rides by right of first occupation. The London Standard, referring to the same question, considers that it is time France left the Island. A few days later the official journal published an article regarding the Franco-German protocol of December last, relating to the future operations of those countries on the West Coast of Africa and the South Pacific. The journal advocates the taking of the New Hebrides by France, and argues justification for
